RE: Tribal Chairperson Investigation

The following is a summary of the steps taken to investigate allegations made against the Tribal Chairperson. Per the Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah Constitution, Tribal Council Standards of Conduct, Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah Personnel Policy, and Resolution 2014-07. All processes have been followed as outlined in our governing documents and directed by the Tribal Council. If you would like any copies of the documents, you must request them from the Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah Tribal Council Secretary in writing or audio from the meeting in question from the Utah Paiute Tribal Housing Authority.

February 6, 2023: A letter was presented to the tribal council in closed session regarding the conduct of the Tribal Chairperson at a meeting with an outside organization. The Chairperson was given a copy of the allegation at this meeting.

February 8, 2023: A letter was sent to the Chairperson from the Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah Tribal Council regarding the investigation, the allegation, and Resolution 2014-07.

February 14, 2023: The Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah Council requested documents from the Utah Paiute Tribal Housing Authority Board of Commissioners.

February 27, 2023: The Utah Paiute Tribal Housing Authority Board of Commissioners replied to the Tribal Council's request with supporting documents.

March 6, 2023: The Tribal Chairperson reported in her monthly report about the investigation. The Council met to review the documents submitted.

March 24, 2023: The Chairperson was given an update on the on-going investigation in a letter from the Tribal Council.

April 10, 2023: The allegations letter had been read in the April open meeting minutes, noting that the tribal council will not be releasing the outcome of the pending investigation, per Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah Personnel Policy. The council met to discuss and re-review all evidence submitted, and the Chairperson was notified of the outcome.

April 17, 2023: A letter was sent to the Tribal Council from the Tribal Chairperson requesting the Tribal Chairperson to read various documents into the meeting minutes of May 1, 2023, at the Tribal Council Regular Meeting.

April 21, 2023: Tribal Council met to discuss the letter in an emergency tribal council meeting to reply to the Tribal Chairperson.

April 27, 2023: The Tribal Council replied to the Chairperson request in writing.
